-We have looked very carefully through our ile for some time previous to "the opening of "the present session of Congress," and can and no such expression or sentence as The Observer professes to quote from our columns. We do not yet say that it never appeared there, for passages do sometimes creep in, through dispatches or otherwise, that we thoroughly ever in THE TRIBUNE till now, and we call upon The Observer for the date on which the above objectionable sentence appeared in ear columns. Let us get at the right of the case.

Gov. Morgan has nominated Mesers. Wil-LIAM H. BURLEIGH, JARED V. PECK, and Louis Louisbury for reappointment as Port Wardens of this city. Having served faithfully and acceptably, they will doubtless be confirmed without opposition.
